Fort George G. Meade History

Fort Meade is preparing for its 100th birthday in 2017 to coincide with commemoration of the 100th anniversary of World War I. The installation was named in honor of General George G. Meade, “The Hero of Gettysburg.”

World War I

During World War I, more than 400,000 Soldiers passed through Camp Meade, a training site for three infantry divisions, three training battalions and one depot brigade.

World War II

Fort Meade became a training center during World War II, its ranges and other facilities were used by more than 200 units and approximately 3,500,000 men between 1942 and 1946.

The Modern Era

Fort Meade is the largest employer in the State of Maryland—it has the 4th largest workforce among Army installations in the continental United States .
